enjoyed never losing in a competitive game of Spades with family and friends. She was a wonderful cook and caring mom, wife, and grandmother to her family.

Jane is preceded in death by her father W. S. Camp Sr.; brother Warren Camp Jr.; sister Sarah Camp Wallace Gladdin; and stepbrother Jay Underhill.

She is survived by her husband Gregory Pianalto; daughter Shelly Pianalto Doggett and her husband Kit Doggett, as well as their son, Spencer; daughter Paige Pianalto; her parents, Frances Camp Underhill and stepfather George Underhill Jr. and her stepbrother and stepsister, Michael Underhill and Leslie Scates.

“ *Greg, Shelly and Paige,
Like everyone else, I was shocked beyond words when I heard about Jane's death. Every time I think about Jane, I remember how welcomed she made me feel when I stayed with y'all in Plano, how much fun we all had having dinner after calling on accounts all day. She was a very special lady, and her passing will leave a void in so many lives. Please know we are here to support you all thru this most difficult time, when so many want to take your pain and sorrow away, but, we can't, so we send our love, prayers and thoughts to you.*

I am so sorry, Greg.

“ Greg - when Mari and I moved from Chicago to Little Rock around 1983 we did not know anyone. You and Jane befriended us beyond work, and Jane was very gracious in hosting many get togethers at your home for our whole group of employees. We were all young and partied too hard!. Mari and I have never forgiven the kindness you two showed us. That's what I remember and wanted to share about both you and Jane. May she rest in Peace.
