He worked at Darling Ingredients for 14 years as a corporate construction manager. Jason loved hunting, fishing, and exploring the outdoors. His favorite pastimes were bowling, sports, offroading, and calling the Hogs. He was a great provider who deeply loved his family and always lent a helping hand to friends from Kentucky to Arkansas.

Jason leaves behind his loving wife, Amanda Boaz; two daughters, Emma Boaz and Alyssa Neeriemer; his mother, Jeanie Lee; his stepdad, Bill Lee; his father, Rick Boaz; his stepmother, Gloria Boaz; several in-laws, Charity and John Mark Ford, and Sarah and Joseph Embry; two nephews, Tristen Ford and Carson Ford; one niece, Blakely Embry; his mother-in-law, Rachel Collins; one stepsister Lorie Todd and husband Wade—along with their two sons; one great aunt, Mary Evelyn Cotton; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and other relatives.

A celebration of life will take place Thursday, June 6th, from 5 PM to 7 PM at Christian Life Cathedral Chapel in Fayetteville.

As Jason prioritized finding joy in life and sharing it with others, the family asks that you do the same - go out and do something that brings you real joy and share it with those around you. If you feel so moved, reach out and tell us about it - or another joyful time shared with Jason!

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to Emma's college fund. Venmo @AmandaBoaz07.

“ I remember that my Dad, Jim Marrs, would threaten to put Mustard on Jason's thumb if he wouldn't stop sucking on it. We were very young, and Jason and his lil sister spent the night, We lived behind Black Oak Church.

Dad also got a kick out of hearing/watching Jason scare the heck out of his Mom.

Hopefully they will reunite and talk about the good Ole days when he was young.

“ Jeanie my heart breaks for you. I am sending prayers for you and your family. I think about our morning breaks and you sharing news with all of us about what Jason was doing. We heard about first grade, his baseball games, and the college classes he was taking. We all grew up with him and hearing the latest news about him. We loved him. I am so sorry for your loss. “ Jeanie, Jason will always have a special place in my heart. Try to always remember good memories for they are truly precious. My heart is broken for I know the pain you are going through but I also know God will give you comfort and strength. Keep faith and trust Him. One day at a time. I know Jason loved you all so much and that he was loved by all who knew him. I believe there will be a wonderful reunion someday and oh what a time that will be. Heartfelt thoughts and prayers. “ This is the hardest thing that I’ve had to do! Never thought I would have to say goodbye this early in your life! “Jack”, which was the nickname that his grandparents gave him. Jack/Jason was the glue that held us together when we lost them and I asked him what we were going to do. He said we would get through it as a family. And that’s what we’re going to do now in honor of Jack!

Jason was a Christian so I know we will see him again! He was a family man and loved his wife Amanda deeply. He and Amanda made amazing couple and he was so proud of his girls, Alyssa and Emma!

So Jack this is not a final goodbye, it’s a see ya later! Love ya so much! Aunt Janis!

“ Jason was my precious precious gift from God, my Lord and Savior which we had for 47-1/2 years. I will miss him GREATLY but I know he's in the arms of God. It is unbelievable the pain and heartache we're experiencing with his passing. I'm so very blessed of the memories our family had with him, it's so strange to speak of my sweet sweet boy in the past tense. Our family needs prayers and the strength to cope with this. I pray you cherish and share the memories of him with others and retain them in your heart.

Jeanie, this breaks my heart. I know how much you love Jason, he was your life. I always remember when you'd ride to the bowling alley with me. This was before kids had to be in car seats. Jason would stand in the seat between us. At the bowling alley, he and Virginia Parker would always get in some kind of mischief. Praying for you, Jeanie, during this difficult time.
