

Jennifer Hahn

May 4, 2012

Jennifer Kay Hahn, 39, of Fayetteville, died Friday, May 4, 2012 at her home following a brief illness. She was born September 15, 1972 in Hays, Kansas to Linda Carr and Steven St. Peter.

Jennifer worked most recently as an Executive Assistant at Crystal Bridges Museum in Bentonville. Prior to that, she worked for Paramount Pictures in Los Angeles, California. She earned a degree in Broadcast Journalism from the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville and wrote for the Morning News and did some producing for 40/29TV.

Survivors are her parents, Linda Hahn and Norman Hahn of Fayetteville and Steven St. Peter of Townshend, Vermont; one brother, Brad Hahn and wife Crystal of Fayetteville; two sisters, Christin Hahn and Jill Hahn both of Fayetteville and one nephew, Charlie Parker.

Graveside services will be Tuesday, May 8, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. in Larned Cemetery in Larned, Kansas under the direction of Morell Funeral Home.

Visitation will be on Sunday from 2 to 4pm at Sisco Funeral Chapel in Springdale.

Jennifer was a selfless daughter, a generous sibling, a loving aunt and a kind friend. She touched everyone she met with her amazing spirit.

The family asks that in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Humane Society of the Ozarks, 1020 South One Mile Road, Fayetteville, Arkansas 72704.
