“ *Nell, we read that your mother had passed away. I called her "Honey," which she enjoyed. We're so grateful that Wayne and Valerie stayed with her as she became more frail. We have written Wayne Beverly of her passing and sent him this address. I wrote him that she had outlived all but you. We feel that another part of THE LAST MISSION (getting Michael to The Wall) is gone now. Bless her, she was a wonderful, kind, and loving woman.

“ My sincere condolences to the Damron family. Mrs. Damron will be greatly missed. I met her when Budd Saunders, John Kniffin and I took Michael to the Wall in 1996. She was a kind and gentle person, reminded me greatly of my mother.

“ Nell,

As I sat this morning, I thought of something else I remember about your family. Your Dad had a Merry-go-round in youall's back yard. It was the first one this old country boy had ever seen and boy did we fun on it. Just had to mention that. Galen
