“ Jim was one of a kind, I had the privilege of taking care of him couple of years ago. He always had a smile on his face, even if we had just woke him up. He loved everyone, and showed it with his kindness. If you weren't smiling, he wanted to know why. He was quick to pray for you to change that face. He loved calling me by my nickname "Sissy" said I reminded him of someone with the same nickname. He will be greatly missed.
