“ I first met Joe in 1979, when I became friends with Sherry. Joe had a great sense of humor, especially dealing with teenage girls (Sherry and me). I was fortunate to be invited on family trips in the Mini Winnie. He was a kind and gentle man and a leader in his family. I know he is with Jesus now, free from illness, pain and sorrow. I love him dearly and look forward to seeing him again. Love to Norma and his family, I know this is a great loss as he was a great man.
