Joyce was such a sweet lady, she always had time for all of us, even though she was ill herself. We use to have late night talks. She will be missed.

May you fly high with the Angels Joyce!!! You always had a kind word for me during my cancer fight - you always checked on me and talked to me but you never complained. You always had that wonderful loving touch that those of us that had no mother any longer could really gravitate too. God has a special pair of wings just for you!! Thank you for being my friend. My condolences to her family. She was a wonderful lady. RIP my friend.
