“ Today was your funeral and my heart is breaking. I am being selfish I know, because your pain is gone. You are alive and with your husband and family. And what an honor to get to meet our Lord and Savior. You are missed and we will always remember you and love you always. I know I will see you someday. But facing everyday without you will be hard until then. God Bless your Boys whom I love very much.

Until we meet in heaven, I will forever remember you and your kindness and love you had for everyone.

*God Bless

My dearest Darlene, you were an awesome and beautiful friend. I loved you like my own sister. You did an amazing job raising those wonderful boys of yours, and I will always keep my promise I made to you that I would always watch over them and help them with anything they ever need. They will never have a shortage of love and care as long as I am alive. I miss you so much it hurts. Thank you for the love you showed my family also. But I know that there is no more pain, and you are with the people you loved so much. I remember your promise to me that you will be there to meet me when it is my time. Thank you for sharing your love and friendship and awesome sons with me. I now have the sons I never had, and I have a beautiful angel in heaven watching over me. Your faith and strength was always there, and you taught me so much. Rest in peace, our beautiful Darlene. My prayers are with you and your family.
