“ What a wonderful, Christian lady I knew Juanita to be! For many years she lovingly cared for my grandparents. Whenever I saw her she had a smile on her face and a kind word on her lips. May you, her family, find peace and comfort knowing she is with The Lord.

“ *We know that Juanita will be missed, but she has run her race on earth down here and has won her crown in heaven now. We know that her and Dale, and Sara, are all together. We send our condolences to the family and she was a very sweet lady and we remember her as a very fine christian lady we went to church with her and some of the family at Westside FWB for a few years. “ Goodbye Granny. Go in peace and be at peace. I will always remember you. I'll remember the love and caring heart that always greeted me with a smile and a hug. I will forever appreciated your tender words. I'll always and forver be "one of my boys" as you called me. Thank you. I know you and Pops are together now. Be at peace sweet lady and be forever loved.
