

Juanita Faye Kilpatrick

September 25, 1935 - September 14, 2025

Juanita Faye Kilpatrick, 89, of Springdale, passed away September 14, 2025, at home.

She was born September 25, 1935, in Mountainburg, Arkansas, to Everett and Lois Meadors.

Her favorite things to do were gardening and preparing meals. She enjoyed making dresses for her daughters when they were young and helping her husband as he built houses. Later in life, Juanita returned to school and earned her GED. She was also passionate about computers—always willing to help friends and family who needed technical help.

Survivors include two daughters, Sheila Jacobs of McKinney, Texas, and Shirley Sizemore and husband Curtis of Springdale, Arkansas; seven grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

She will be joining her husband, six brothers, three sisters, and her grandson, Jason Aaron Sizemore. After missing her mother for so many years, she is now enjoying her presence being with her now.

A graveside service will be held on Saturday, September 20, 2025, at Elm Springs Cemetery beginning at 10 AM with Pastor Jay Foley officiating.
