“ Just sittin' here thinking about Julie. Hadn't seen here in years so my memories are of a time when she was out and about, volunteering at Lee Elementary, doing her crafting, telling me something funny or whatever. She had a way about her. Makes me smile. I still have a little wooden Christmas sleigh she painted for me who knows when. I pull it out every year and think of her. Bill and I are keeping you in our prayers, Wayne. God has a plan even in your sorrow. Our hearts are with you.

“ Wayne and Julie were the first people that welcomed me with open arms to Salem when I first arrived to work here. We became fast friends. That was over 32 years ago. Julie treated me more like a sister than a friend and she was one of the best friends I had. I loved Amanda like she was my own too. Julie was good to talk to and very funny at times. I miss her very much. Our deepest sympathy and love to you, Wayne. We are very comforted to know that she is with her mom and dad and Amanda in Heaven.

Much love,
