“ I can't believe you left us much too early, I am going to miss you my sweet friend! You are a big part of my favorite life memories, we had a lot of good times together & alot of laughs! I loved watching our sons grow up together. I loved our cherry mash birthdays!! There are so many things I loved & admired about you Kelli like how big your heart was and how you could light up a room with your laughter, and how you love your family with all your heart! You were always there for me Kelli I Love You and I miss you
