“ My dear Mary so sorry for the passing of Kenny. While I was growing up in our neighborhood you both were there and we all got close and we are family I've always have remembered that. Uncle Kenny to me was always onery but he was fun and caring to be around. When I lost Kendall, it was sad, but I knew he wasn't hurting or suffering and I knew as you should that I had done what I could, as you have to. Mary I'm thinking of you and praying for y'all .
RIP Kenny
