“ Kevin, David and Chad were together all of the time. I rode bus 8 with Kevin. Met at his house before Freshman Homecoming. Played ball at 7th Ward. I will cherish these memories. My thoughts go out to his family in this trying time.

“ So many memories with Kevin, only growing up a block apart, riding bikes, fishing, working on his car with his father, to Scrubbing blue house paint off of him for a golf outing. Even though you moved across the U.S., we always stayed in touch. Rest peaceful my friend until we see each other again.

“ So many memories. Kevin and I were together everyday when we were young. We fished together, worked at Lou Reda's, shared a paper route, rode bikes, etc. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Kevin was one of the most generous people I've met. If he could help you in any way, he would.
He loved showing his love through cooking and when he cooked, he COOKED! Usually a smorgasbord of food.
Him and Anna would often bring me food when I was under-the-weather.
He loved playing games, especially Trivia cuz he thought he knew everything. =)
I will treasure the friendship we built and the wonderful memories we made.
Rest in peace and forever loved.

“ A little over ten years ago, my wife Stacey and I went to Mt. Washington to celebrate our wedding anniversary with dinner. Mt. Washington is known for its pricy restaurants overlooking Pittsburgh. After enjoying a delicious meal, a couple of glasses of wine, and dessert, our bill came to over three hundred dollars. At the end of the evening, when the waiter asked if we needed anything else, I requested the bill. To our surprise, he informed us that everything, including the tip, had already been taken care of.

Stacey and I looked at each other in confusion, unable to figure out who could have paid for our meal. We hadn't mentioned our dinner plans to either of our families. Laughing and scanning the room for familiar faces, we were stumped. Then it dawned on me that earlier in the week, I had asked Kevin for a restaurant recommendation with a view of Pittsburgh. It turns out Kevin had called to check if we had a reservation and took care of the bill for us.

Kevin was an incredibly generous person, always giving and a hell of a lot of fun being around. I will miss you, my friend.
