I miss you dearly brother, today was a beautiful day for your funeral. Jim Huffman did an awesome service. soldiers from your military unit came here ad did the folding of the flag and the VFW gave the 21 gun salute. A large family and friends gathered to celebrate your life here on earth. very special day with your grandchildren, they loved going to chicken pen to gather eggs. i have several chickens out now, but they got eggs. My prayers were answered God did not let you suffer long and to thank I give Thanks to God for that. Iwill always miss you and love you, and i have very spicail memories. love you xoxoxo

I miss you daddy so much. Happy early thanksgiving. I wish you could enjoy your turkey day here with us but you're spending it with your parents Ryleigh and grandma Mary and Gary and many more family members in heaven. I can't wait to spend it with you up there also. I love you. xoxoxo

“ Kevin, From the first time I met you, you took me in as part of your family. You always had a smile on your face and love in your heart. The love you showed to your wife, children, grandchildren, brother and sister and to me will never be forgotten. I can't begin to tell how grateful I am to have met you and been a part of your family. I am sure you and my Daddy are together talking over old times, watching over us and enjoying a feast! You two were always good at talking and eating. I am thankful you did not have to suffer long. May you rest in peace. Until we meet again, xoxoxoxoxo

“ I'm gonna miss my daddy very much. I can't believe he's never gonna be able to be here with his family anymore. I'm lost without him and just Dont know what to do now. Even when we had our differences I would know he was okay. Now he's not here anymore and i feel like I have a big piece of my heart missing. He loved his grand baby's for sure. They always will have his heart and I will def make sure they remember everything that he did for his family from working 4 jobs when I was a kid each day to fighting for our freedom. I love you daddy and I can't wait to see u again. My hearts broken but glad ur not suffering anymore. I just want u to hug me and tell me u love me one last time and kiss Maddox again. :(

“ As I sit back and think about my baby brother. I think about some private conversations we had with each other, this makes me smile. He was very much a family man. His children and grandchildren were his pride and joy. I often asked him how do you put up with them all talking at the same time. He said I just block them all out unless I hear something I need to hear more about and he just smiled.. Then being married almost 30 years to Francis, they still acted like they were still young kids themselves. I loved the way they would pick on each other. You could tell they were still very much in love..

His grandchildren meant the world to him. He enjoyed every second with them.. Life wasn't easy but they had love and God and that was all he needed. I am so happy knowing he was able to talk with a preacher shortly before he passed. Kevin will be missed very much fo sure. Even when his cancer got bad he still smiled. I am thankful to God for not letting him suffer very long. May you rest in peace my brother love and miss you! xoxoxo
