“ Uncle Joe, I know there's a big ol' family reunion in Heaven right now. Even as we mourn your loss down here, there are tears of joy and long, long hugs up there. I'll never forget the day I came home from school and saw the child-size guitar standing in the corner behind Dad's amp. Mom said it was from you - I was 5 years old and just couldn't believe that beautiful instrument was for me! It was the beginning of my life-long love of music. Thank you for all of the wonderful smiles, laughter, and words of encouragement. You are a great blessing, and you will be mightily missed. Give Granny and Grandpa big hugs and kisses from me, too. I love you. Until we're all together again, Theresa

Marianne and Joey, please know that you are in my heart and prayers. I cannot imagine your pain. May God bless you and surround you with love and the comfort of a lifetime of precious memories. I love you. xoxox

“ Uncle Joe, please tell Granny and Grandpa hi for me and give them a big hug. I have so many memories of the time we spent together...from the time when I was in 2nd grade and you took me around your "circuit" one Saturday afternoon and I got to drink a Coke at each establishment (wink wink) until Granny tracked you down by phone because she knew what your circuit was...You "tried" to teach me to water ski....you took me to my first Razorback basketball game.....I will LOVE and MISS you for the rest of my life, but will think of you everytime I see a Razorback.

So Woo Pig Sooie!!!!!!!!!!!! Love Dane

“ Rest in peace, Monkey Joe! You have always been my uncle but now I know you are with Granny & Grampa in Heaven. Tell them I still miss them but I know that God called them to be with Him in Heaven, so I'll see them when my time on Earth is done
