“ Laura was my Sister in Law. I am married to Her older Brother Earl. After she quit drinking we became Sisters. She baked for all our kids when they came to visit. She made a beautiful Christmas stocking for my Grandkids. She and I made a few road trips and got lost. She could beat me nearly every time in cards, and loved it. If I got stimied on a recepie she bailed me out. I will miss her every day call, and never knew when she would walk in the front door. I miss you already. Love , Mary

“ Laura took me to church when my family first moved to Springdale in 1966. I even got to play Joseph in the Christmas play. I wore a tie with white shirt, jeans and red tennis shoes. Going to church made a lasting impression that helped point me to the Cross and Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior as a result. Forever grateful!
