“ We sure loved June, I was always amazed how she smiled ,If she had a bad day We never saw it, A sweet ,sweet woman. we always thought of her as our 2nd Mother,Her and Jack treated us and our Girls so good. And our Grandkids,I will always remember her smile,and how excited she got when she got in a bed of crappie and she would holler at me and would tell me to get down there where she was at so I would catch some of those big ones, She will be missed ,but hopefully we will see her again in Heaven, This is Our lose but Heavens gain
