“ Faye was quite a lady! She will be missed by so many of us. She loved to have fun and loved doing her Avon route & visiting with her customers. Many of them became her friends if they weren't already. Being able to stay at home as long as she did was a true blessing for her and the family. I always enjoyed our times together. One time I complained about not finding a close parking spot and she told me I didn't pray to my "parking angel" hard enough! She hand crocheted blankets for some of our great grandchildren just a short few years ago. I know there is quite the reunion going on in heaven. You're home now, Faye. We love you. Prayers of comfort and strength for the family. Love to all.
