

Linda Diana Bradberry

March 24, 1950 - June 26, 2026

Linda Diana Bradberry, 76, passed away peacefully on June 26, 2026. Born on March 24, 1950, in El Dorado, Arkansas, Diana lived a life rooted in faith, love, and devotion to her family.

She spent her childhood growing up in Shreveport, Louisiana, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and Tulsa, Oklahoma, where she graduated from Nathan Hale High School. She later continued her education by attending business college in Tulsa.

Diana was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Jim Bradberry; her loving mother and father, Bobbie Jean Askew and Jeff Davis Dunbar; and her brother, Jeff Dewey Dunbar. We find comfort in knowing she has gone to be with them once again.

Diana leaves behind a loving family who will carry her memory forever: her daughter, Lisa Campbell and husband Patrick Campbell; her son, Scott Snow and wife Amy Snow; her cherished grandchildren, Bobbie-Ann Purkey and husband Leroy Purkey, Davis Snow, Sophie Campbell, and Willow Snow; and her precious great-grandchildren, Oakleigh Purkey and Everleigh Purkey.

Diana was the heart of her family—a deeply loving woman whose kindness, wisdom, and unwavering faith touched everyone around her. She found joy in reading, making crafts, and spending time in the kitchen baking with her grandchildren. Some of her greatest joys were teaching her grandkids about Jesus and covering her family in prayer. She was truly the family's prayer warrior.

Her love, faith, and strength will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. Diana will be deeply missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.
