

Linda C Fogley

April 3, 1947 - February 25, 2026

Linda C. Fogley of Springdale, Arkansas died February 25, 2026 at her home after a lengthy illness due to COPD. She was born April 3, 1947 in Paris, Arkansas to Joseph C. and Lucille Konert Fischer. She married Doug Fogley on October 28, 1967. She lived in Monticello and Searcy while her husband was employed with the Arkansas State Police. They moved to Springdale in 1976.

She was a dedicated mother to Stacy Mitchum (Donnie) of Charleston, Cassandra Kelley (Dustin) of Fayetteville, and Doug Fogley II. She spent her life caring for her family and maintaining a loving home. She enjoyed watching her children and grandchildren play sports, and cheering on the Razorbacks, Kansas City Chiefs, and OKC Thunder. She cherished spending time with her family.

She was predeceased in death by her parents and son, Doug Fogley II.

She is survived by her husband, daughters, sister Betty Gray (Jennings) of Russellville, brother Joseph Fischer (Debbie) of Ratcliff, grandchildren Maegan and Colton Kelley, Vanessa and Brett Fogley, Laura Little, Aaron Mitchum, and Amalie Hendrix, seven great grandchildren, and seven nieces and nephews.

At Linda's request, no services are planned.

“Family of Linda, We were so very sad to learn of Linda's passing. We lived in Paris where Linda grew up and shared a lot of different memories and a lot of family get togethers with she and her family though as we all married and moved in different directions we lost touch. Our condolences to all family. May she rest in peace. Fred and Carolyn Johnson and Mary Jiles”
