

Lois White

February 28, 1925 - July 11, 2010

Lois Alberta White 85 of Springdale gracefully passed from this life at home carefully attended by her family and caregivers on July 11, 2010. She was born February 28, 1925 in Springdale to Floyd "Pete" and Mary Agnes Crisler Steverson of the Oak Grove Community. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Springdale and in Grandview, Washington. Lois enjoyed and was active with the Methodist Quilting Group .

She is survived by her husband James White whom she married August 7, 1948. Their 62 years of marriage created a family including two daughters; Karen Jech of Springdale and Karla Hancock and husband Eldon of Olympia, WA. Four grandchildren Carmen Burasco, James Jech, Nicholas Hancock and Nolan Hancock, and two great grandchildren, Sophia Burasco and Miya Jech.

She was a graduate of Springdale High School and Fayetteville Business College. Her career and passions were wife, mother and homemaker. Lois had a nurturing spirit, sharp wit, and friendly nature. She loved people and was a faithful servant to many including the PTA, her church, her friends, her neighbors as well as her daughters' friends.

The family sends appreciation and thanks for her loving caregivers Ramona Cagle, Valoree Hickman, Cherie Creamer, the Circle of Life Hospice Team, and the Schmeiding Center. Memorial contributions in lieu of flowers may be sent to Circle of Life Hospice, 901 Jones Road, Springdale, AR 72762.

Funeral services will be 2:00 PM Thursday, July 15, 2010 at Sisco Funeral Chapel of Springdale with Rev. Judy VanHoose officiating. Burial will be in Elm Springs Cemetery.

Pallbearers are: James Jech, Mike White, Joe Buchanan, Dean Noblin, Barry Noblin and Chris Weiser. Honorary pallbearers are, Carroll Crisler, Joe Roberts, Eldon Hancock, Nicholas Hancock and Nolan Hancock.

Tribute Wall

“ Lois White

---

January 21, 2023 at 02:29 PM