

Lola Snell

January 5, 1925 - December 1, 2012

Lola Mae Snell, 87, of Lowell, died Saturday, December 1, 2012 in Bentonville. She was born January 5, 1925 in Beedeville, Arkansas to Jim and Gertie Gaskin Mathews.

Lola was a homemaker and also worked for Pel-Freeze in Rogers. She was a baptist.

She was preceded in death by her husband Warren Snell.

Survivors include one son, Oscar Mathews and wife Verlene of Bentonville; one brother, Hershel Mathews of Alabama; two grandchildren, Kevin and Kraig Mathews and one great grandchild Sterling Skye Mathews.

Graveside services will be Tuesday, December 4, 2012 at 2pm at National Cemetery in Fayetteville.

Visitation will be 12 to 1pm at Sisco Funeral Chapel in Springdale.

To sign the guestbook online please visit www.siscofuneral.com

Tribute Wall

“ Lola Snell

January 21, 2023 at 02:29 PM

“ Oscar and Verlene

Sorry about your Mother. What a small world, I didn't know until I read the obituary Oscar that I knew Lola's son and daughter-in-law. My mother Mary Conner lives at Apple Blossom and I do alterations and did several pant hemmings for your sweet mother. I am Janet Williams. but you knew me as Janet Weaver and Norman that bought your house on 14th st in Bentonville years and years ago and we were neighbors. Wish I had known you were her son. She would talk about but I never put the connection. I just loved Lola and miss her.

Her alteration lady Janet

Janet Williams - May 29, 2013 at 05:01 PM

“ I have always appreciated Aunt Lola's sense of humor and warm smile.

She was always kind and considerate to me. She will be greatly missed.

The flowers she gave me, and even grow now in my backyard, are special.

I think of her each spring when they bloom.

Audrey Kirby - May 29, 2013 at 05:01 PM