

Lorean Tillotson

July 29, 1911 - April 7, 2013

Lorean Anderson Tillotson died at age 101 and eight months on 7 April 2013 in Albuquerque, New Mexico where she had lived since December 2009. Loreana was born 29 July 1911 in Harmon, Arkansas, daughter of Louis and Mabel Anderson. She is predeceased by her brother Preston Anderson, her sister Leora Ford, and her husband Kenneth Tillotson. She is survived by her son Boyd Barger.

After graduating from Elm Springs High School in 1930, Loreana went to Chicago, Illinois where she worked as a nurse maid for young children. She returned to Arkansas to study nursing at Sparks Memorial Hospital in Ft. Smith where she graduated as a Registered Nurse in 1940. She worked there until taking an assignment in 1941 with Zurich Insurance Company at the dispensary during construction of Norfolk Dam. There she met her first husband, Dr. O.B. Barger of Branch, Arkansas. Married in Philadelphia, Penn. in June of 1942 where then Captain Barger was posted in the US Army, they later transferred to Washington, D.C. where Loreana worked in a hospital until returning to Arkansas in June of 1943 to await the birth of their son. Loreana returned to work at Sparks Hospital and later with the Crawford County Health Department.

Loreana moved to Johnson, Arkansas in 1949 and worked for several years at the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Fayetteville. Loreana and Kenneth Tillotson married in January of 1950 and resided on their farm on Carly Road in Springdale until moving to the Arkanshire Retirement Community in 1996. Kenneth died December 1999. Loreana remained in Springdale until moving to Albuquerque, New Mexico to be with her son. She was a life-long member of the Elm Springs Methodist Church.

In addition to her life-long passion for health care, Loreana loved to travel. She visited son Boyd when he was stationed in the Air Force in Europe and talked fondly of traveling through Germany, Austria, and England and especially of the tulip season in Holland. She often visited him when he later worked in Texas, New York, California and New Mexico.

Graveside services will be Thursday, April 11, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. at Bluff Cemetery in Springdale.

Visitation will be from 9 to 11 a.m. at Sisco Funeral Chapel in Springdale.

“ From her first letter to me when I was facing a big medical decision at a fairly young age, Mrs Tillotson was warm and helpful. Over the years we kept in touch by letter and when her love of travel brought her my way. With deepest sympathy,
