“ Dear Connie, I was very saddened to learn of Lucy's passing away. She was a dear, funny, kind person. And who will ever forget her peanut brittle and pimento cheese? I'm sure you will miss her greatly, but remember, she was very fortunate to have you. May time and the affection of family and friends help you through these sad times. Sincerely, Olivia

“ Connie, Sharon, and Charles, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She was such a sweet, funny lady and I have many memories that include her. From her days of working at Joyce Drug to the days at Dillard's when I worked with her. She could always put a smile upon my face. May you find comfort in knowing that she is smiling and shining in a better place now. Hugs to all of you. Mary Sumerwell Hauser
