“ To Aunt Mabel's family from Jeanettie (Mobbs) Sullivan's family, We all offer you our condolences and heartfelt sympathy on Aunt Mabel's passing. We will miss her. One of my favorite memories growing up was visiting her in her kitchen and tasting all of the neat things she had canned and grown in her gardens. Her quilts are legendary and we are so proud to have some of them. She was and is someone that we all admired and looked up to. All of my prayers for peace and comfort go out to Aunt Mabel's family.

“ Jeri and Family...
I feel so blessed to have know Mabel. Growing up with Jeri I always felt that I had the best of both worlds her family and mine. Mabel and Pawnee opened up there home as if I was another grand kid. I am pretty sure that my true love for okra started with her picking and cooking it up fresh from the garden. I can just hear Sue and Jamie now celebrating her home coming into heaven. Another angel has gone home to all that have long awaited her. Rest in peace sweet and kind lady for you have earned your rest. Prayers and Love to all.. Laura Meek Coberley
