“ I will always remember my Great Aunt Marcy, one memory in particular that brings a smile is went she and Drucy would play beauty shop with me. They would let me curl and style their hair and play dress with their costume jewelry. I spent many summers with my loving grandparents Bill and Lou Ames who would take me to visit the twins often. I send my thoughts and condolences to my Dad, Gary Morris who has not only lost his mother a short time ago, and now is aunt. We should all join in a special thought to the twins whom were both a very special part of my dad's childhood and know that we are all greiving from a far. P.S. Marcy I hope your hair is curled just right!!!!!! Love, Alicia, Gary and Carolyn Morris's Daughter!

“ I didn't know Marcy for very long, but I feel fortunate to have known such a sweetheart, even for a short time. She was just such a kind & considerate person & so likeable from the moment you met her. I'm certain she'll be deeply missed by family & the many, many friends that she had. My sympathy goes out to all those closest to her. Heaven found a very special place for a very special lady.

“ When I was younger I knew her as Aunt Marcy, the other half to great Uncle Charles, a kind and lively lady. As a descendant of an SCV officer, on the other family side, I saw more of her as a dedicated member of the UDC (along with her sister) who attended many functions and had a great love for Civil War Era history.

“ Aunt Marcy was a sweet and funny lady. We used to love visiting her and Uncle Charlie as well as seeing Drucie and Marcy together. They were the epitome of true Southern Belle's. My favorite story is that she sent us Kremers' nieces and nephews a present for our birthdays. She just sent them on different birthdays. Once Charlie got a gift on my birthday and I got one on Guy's birthday. We knew ours would be coming sometime during the year. She was very sentimental and loved giving and receiving letters and cards. I know that Uncle Charles and Drucie were waiting for her to come on home to heaven and I have know doubt she is there. God blesses and loves this sweet soul.
