“ We lived just a mile west of the Olivers (on Horsebarn Road) and I rode the same school bus as Marci, Gail, and Cindy. My folks and hers used to get together often back then. She was confident, smart, tough, outspoken, and beautiful and I am sorry to hear of her passing.

“ My deepest condolences to the Family. I was very sad to hear of her passing. I was Marci's Financial Adviser. She was one of my favorite clients, a very smart investor, and one accomplished businesswoman. It was truly a pleasure working with her for 20 years. She will be deeply missed. Our family is keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Marci and I were a month apart in age and attended school together from elementary to high school. Before Beaver Lake came in, Marci's father had a big hog farm in the country out on White River which is now the Prairie Creek area of Beaver Lake. I used to ride the school bus home with Marci occasionally on Fridays and would spend the weekend with her. We spent most of our time riding horses bareback along the banks of the river exploring and collecting arrowheads. Marci would get a running start and jump up on her horse from behind while I had to find a gate to climb up on to get on my horse. She was a tomboy and afraid of nothing including snakes. One time when we were hiking in the woods, I watched from a tree limb as she killed a copperhead with nothing but a stick. She was always fun, forever spirited and had a glowing natural beauty. I am thankful to have had her, if only briefly, in my life and hold dear memories of a good friend.

My condolences to her family for their sad loss.
