“ Aunt Margie...I didn't get to spend a lot of time with her, since we lived in different states across the country. But we got the chance to visit a few years back and she sat with me for a couple of hours going over photos for the family tree and telling me all she could about her side of the family. I will always appreciate that. She filled in some holes and was able to identify some of the family I never met. Pat
