“ I loved this man, it was such a Blessing to get to know him.
A couple fond memories in knowing him for the last 7 years was I took on a big paint job at a medical clinic and I knew I was over my head, and I knew he was a master painter I asked him for his help, he did not hesitate to com into the job and the job was nothing to him it went so smooth and amazing and he was so good , it went like clock work and came together like a magnet to metal with EAs.
One more time he had asked me to preach his mother's funeral he loved her and took amazing care of her, it was an amazing honor to get asked and do for him.
U will be so missed .

Love ya .
Till we meet again.

“ Mark was like a brother to me from the time I was little and he and my cousin Keith would pick on me like big brothers. When I was in my teens we would sit in his car smoking cigarettes and listening to 8-tracks of Elton John and others. Then when I finally returned home hardly a sunny afternoon would go by when Mark wouldn't catch me outside doing stuff. We would stop and share a cold beer and talk sometimes till after dark, just about old times, forgotten people and solving the problems of the world. I'm really going to miss him.

“ Mark was my cousin and we grew up together. We spent many days building forts, riding bikes, watching TV and playing games at Granny's. Some of my favorite memories are of time spent together. The last several years, he has been a good friend and neighbor that Don and I could count on to help with anything from getting trucks unstuck, using his truck when we didn't have one, and too many other things to count. One thing that is true about the man he was, is his love and devotion to all his family. He adored Robin from the moment they met and has been a loving father, grandfather, brother, cousin and friend. He also took care of his mother until her passing from this life. I have no doubt that he was welcomed by our Heavenly Father with "Well done my good and faithful servant".
