“ The first day I had the amazing pleasure of meeting my wonderful Momma was a day that is so awesome and Even though it's hard & I still want to cry, I can't help but laugh because my ornery sibilings sister Tiffany, my brother Matt & I played a prank on our momma! I was supposed to be coming to Arkansas to go to my sister's graduation and the 3 of us came up with the plan to tell her I couldn't make it & I would show up to surprise her 💕 It was not easy to keep it from her but we managed to get away with it & when I walked down the hill, tapped her on the shoulder & said Hi momma I love you, her reaction was just priceless!! She hugged me so hard and I never thought she'd let go!! I love you so very much Momma!!!! You are our amazing Angel now watching over us!

“ I remember when we were coming back from Kansas and our allergies were acting up so we put Vicks vapor rub under our noses and right afterwards we went through a road work area that had all these cute guys working and there we are with Vicks under our noses. We were so embarrassed, but laughed so hard.
