

Marlon "Moe" Robert Rhodehouse

February 21, 1957 - March 25, 2026

Marlon "Moe" Robert Rhodehouse was born February 21, 1957, and passed away peacefully in his Springdale home on March 25, 2026, at the age of 69.

Marlon was predeceased by his parents, Russell and Oma Rhodehouse; his sister, Shelli Fullerton; his beloved wife, Tracee Jill Neff Rhodehouse; and his cherished cat, Socks.

He is survived by his daughter Candice Register, her husband Mat, and their children Aubree, Boston and Chloe, of West Point, Utah; his son Matt Rhodehouse, his wife Shelly, and their children Andrew, Nicholas, and Audrey, of Salt Lake City, Utah; his son Cody Rhodehouse of Barling, Arkansas; his brother Brett Rhodehouse, his wife Sue, and their family of Salt Lake City, Utah; his sister Carma Monson, her husband Tom, and their family of Salt Lake City, Utah; and his brother Lyndon Rhodehouse and his wife Dayna of Springdale, Arkansas.

Growing up, Moe loved working on his cars and riding motorcycles. He was extremely hardworking; Moe took great pride in his career as a CDL truck driver — a profession that reflected his dedication and work ethic and brought him into contact with countless people across the miles. It was on the road that one of the most meaningful chapters of his life began: he met his wife, Tracee, during one of his moves, and from that chance encounter grew a lifetime of love and partnership.
