“ I remember Katy and Melissa and their grandmother Faye Aday. I remember when Ms. Aday lived where Mark and Ginger S do now and eating chicken nuggets and corn on the cob with the holders. I thought those holders were so neat. I remember one day there watching the Andy Griffith show episode about Opie at the carnival. Katy was such a sweet person.

“ I met Katy in school. She was a genuinely good soul. When she married Kelly, they lived with us (me and Eddie ) for awhile. It was a lot of fun. We were all too young and had no business being married but there we were. Katy, myself and our other partner in crime Mary spent all our time together . Now I'm so sad we let life drift us apart. We stayed in touch through Facebook etc. but I wish now we had made more of an effort to hang out. Ill miss you my sweet friend. Hug Eddie real big for me and you two behave yourselves up there.
