She is survived by her husband of 18 years, Jimmy Terry of Springdale, AR; her daughter, Lisa Little of Little Rock, AR; her daughter, Kelley Whitehead (Ted) of Fayetteville, AR; her daughter, Leslie Thieman (Kevin) of Denison, TX; her son, Brian Berry of Fayetteville, AR; four grandchildren; Ryan Thieman (Emma) of Richardson, TX; Sarah Thieman of Denison, TX; Brandon Martin of Vance, AL; and Collin Whitehead of Fayetteville, AR; and one great-granddaughter, Avery Johnson of Brookwood, AL; sisters, Maxine Stokes (Joe) of Bowling Green KY; Oleta Kimbrough of Ofallon, IL; Bea Roy (Jim) of Fayetteville AR; and Freida Webb of Skiatook OK; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mary Alice loved the Lord. She was an early riser and spent time in the Word and prayer, often before the sun had risen. Her Bible is covered with the dates of her prayers and the names of the people she prayed for. Mary Alice had the spiritual gift of helping. She was always looking out for other people and very rarely thought of herself. She was a member of Christian Life Cathedral and would often give people rides to church or bring them meals when they needed it.

Mary Alice worked for the City of Fayetteville for 18 years and retired in 2004. She loved painting, doing puzzles, reading, and playing games with her grandchildren. She also enjoyed taking walks with her grandchildren and spending time with them. She and her husband Jimmy liked to take long drives and trips around the country. She was a fantastic cook and loved entertaining in her home.

“ I got acquainted with Mary Alice when she came from Eureka Springs to Fayetteville around 1955. She faithfully attended the church my husband and I pastored and became a close friend. She kept in touch all through the years and visited us in Virginia and Fort Smith. She was a blessing to us and I thank God for the years we knew her. I pray for comfort for her family.
