“ Matt was my best friend growing up in Lichfield Park he was kind and funny he kept me out of a lot of trouble I spent as much time at his home as I did my own. Through secret handshakes and even more secret conversations we shared alot I loved my friend and even though we only spoke once in 20 yrs I will miss him forever I'm so terribly sorry to Stacy and Teri and all that knew and loved him.

“ To the family of Matthew Bogan:

You dont know me, but I wish to extend my condolences. I would like to share a few comforting scriptures with you. God tells us at REVELATIONS 21:4 that he will wipe all tears from our faces and death and sorrow will be no more (evidently a future fulfilment) . One scripture I really love is found at ISAIAH 65:17...I am creating a new Heaven and a new earth the former things will not be remembered. VERSE 20 says "There shall be no more thence an infant of days (a few days old), nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die a hundred years old..". God sent his son to buy back what Adam lost and I look forward to receiving the promised resurrection. May the God of all comfort bring you peace. (Psalms 29:11, Psalms 37:11,29, Isaiah 66:22)

“ It was a pleasure knowing Matt. He proved that loving animals no matter what was always worth each life saved. He had a few loves in his life, but once you were in his life, he kept you close. He loved you Stacy, he loved his family and friends and he loved animals. He will be missed. Hang in there and know there are a lot of people out there that want to help you through this. love to you and the family.

“ Matt and I worked together for many years. We shared a bond like a brother and sister did, we had so much in common and he was always there to pick me up on my tough days even if that meant putting his "hard day" aside. After they moved Matt and I still talked weekly just to check in and say hi. He was such an amazing man whom loved his beautiful wife like no other! There was not one conversation we had that he didn't mention Stacy. Matt was the kind of man that once you were a part of his life , there you would remain! He was devoted and kind. I love you Matt and will miss you my friend. Thank you for the awesome conversations and memories. RIP doll until we meet again!
