

Mauda Lee Shaddox

September 26, 1936 - April 11, 2024

Mauda Lee (Arnold) Shaddox, 87 of Springdale, Arkansas, entered her heavenly home, Thursday, April 11, 2024, at her home, surrounded by loved ones.

She was born September 26, 1936, in Placerville, California to Ruff and Quindora (Doodle) Arnold, both Arkansans. They lived in California for several years working for the Navy and returned to Arkansas after WWII.

Mauda Lee graduated from Harrison High School in 1953 and completed two years at the U of A Fayetteville. She and William R. (Bill) Shaddox, also of Harrison, married August 1954, at the First Baptist Church in Harrison, Arkansas, when it was located on N. Vine St. across from the Hotel Saville. This coming August would have been the couple's 70th anniversary. Together they were parents of five children. She was a homemaker until their youngest child began school. She then worked in various retail and accounting roles at several firms in Harrison. Later, the couple moved to West Plains Missouri and enjoyed many friends in the 24 years they spent there, especially at First Baptist Church of West Plains. The couple most recently moved to Springdale, Arkansas in 2016 to be near family..

In her life, Mauda Lee volunteered and supported many PTA groups and civic organizations, including volunteer teaching of adult reading and English as a second language at NACC, Harrison Junior Auxiliary, Red Hat Society and others.. One of the last volunteer roles, which she enjoyed greatly, was volunteering in the church nursery in West Plains. She was an avid beginning painter. She enjoyed reading, sewing and knitting, the last of which she was very accomplished. She shared her talent by teaching free knitting classes for many years. She personally made and donated many newborn layette sets to Ozark Medical Center in West Plains.

She is survived by her husband, Bill (William R.) Shaddox of the home. A brother-in-law, Robert F. Shaddox of Harrison; five children: Bill Shaddox Jr., of Chicago, IL; Cheri Marks (Mark), of Fayetteville, AR; Jim Shaddox, (Robin), of Fayetteville, AR; Cindy Mix, Fayetteville, AR; and Rick Shaddox, Cass, AR. Nine grandchildren: Nate Marks, Courtney Shaddox, Emily Shaddox, Francie Harris, Dana Mix, Christi Campbell, Ashley Ingram, Tori Shaddox and Taylor Shaddox; 12 great grandchildren; three nephews, one niece and many beloved cousins. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Fayetteville.

A visitation is planned for Sunday, April 14, 2-4 p.m. at Sisco Chapel in Springdale, Arkansas. Graveside service will be at 2 p.m. Monday, April 15 at Maplewood Cemetery in Harrison, Arkansas, with the Reverends Robert F. Shaddox and Jim Arnold Jr. officiating, and Diana Arnold, accompanist.

In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to a hospice organization of your choice.

“ *A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet
In Loving Memory of
Mrs. Mauda Lee Shaddox
Poem By: Marie Farnam, April 11th, 2024*

A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet, has passed through heavens gates today.

As I sit here listening to the winds song that it sings; For I know Heaven has a new angel that has now gained her wings.

A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet, has passed through heavens gates today.

*She was a beautiful wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, daughter and a friend;
For Heavens newest angel was ever so elegant to the very end.*

A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet, has passed through heavens gates today.

A precious lady whose light shown bright for all the world to see; She is now in the presence of our Lord without any pain and walking free.

A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet, has passed through heavens gates today.

With a whole lot of love and dedication to her family through life's challenging daily race; She always took everyday God gave to her with elegance and grace.

A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet, has passed through heavens gates today.

She was a loving inspiration to many, a distinguished friend and confidant; This one of a kind precious woman of God was a Fearless and Beautiful Debutante.

A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet, has passed through heavens gates today.

*She was a blessing to all who met her being ever so kind and sweet;
She always had a way with helping others get through life's challenging defeats.*

A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet; has passed through heavens gates today.

This brilliant flowering daisy, standing out in beautiful full bloom;

She'd light up every occasion when she would enter any room.

A beautiful Flower in Gods Brilliant Bouquet; has passed through heavens gates today.

For Her memories and conversations we will cherish and onto them we will always keep hold, until the day we meet and converse again upon Heavens streets of gold!
