“ Maurice was a kind, soft spoken, good hearted Christian Man. My dad (Dale Norris) worked for Betty and Maurice for several years in the 1980s.and he loved them as some of his best friends. They were so good to my dad. We (Maurice, my dad and I) followed &cheered for David when he played for the Springdale Bulldogs. Maurice was an American hero (Workd War II) veteran serving in the US Navy. He was an honest Christian man. Thank you Maurice for a life well lived.

“ Maurice was a kind, gentle and patient man. Always willing to help anyone in need and was a true testimony of the love of God. I saw and worked for Maurice and Betty Galloway for many years at Century 21 Galloway and I never once heard either of them raise their voices or lose their tempers. They made sure everyone was treated fairly even if it was a loss to their business. What an example for all of us to follow!
