“ Father Lange was a good, old-fashioned (traditional) priest in every sense of the word. I appreciated his honesty and wisdom in guiding us in our faith. Every time I saw him, he'd ask about my kids and then he'd let me know he was praying for all of us. His devotion to the Virgin Mary was truly touching in every sense of the word. I have no doubt he is with Our Lady now and in a much better place. He was a wonderful man and he will be sorely missed. RIP, Father Lange...Miss you, love you!!! And please ask the Virgin Mary to continue to pray for and watch over us. - Wanda Eash

“ Father Lange and I spent many hours in discussion during my individual RCIA education sessions. I still remember what he told me at my first confession when I was struggling with a family situation involving outsiders. His words of wisdom still echo today - 'your family's needs come first'. Those words gave me such heartfilled relief that even today I rely upon them. Mary Lou Wender confirmed December 18, 1988 by Father Lange.
