

Nathaniel Brey Allen

August 24, 1988 - February 24, 2021

Nathaniel Brey Allen was born on August 24th in 1988 in Southern California. Born as Nathaniel Brey Gregory, he later decided to change his last name to Allen, as his stepfather was never a stepfather, only “Dad”. Most knew Nathaniel by ‘Nate’, others by ‘Nathan’ and one very special little guy knew him simply as “Dada”. Nathan was 100% certain that God is alive and well and that Jesus is his Lord and Savior.

Nates son Kyler Beckett Cobxub Allen was the light of his life. He adored his sister Elizabeth and little brother Camden, and it was always his greatest desire to be a good big brother to them both. Nathan and his cousin Desiree’ grew up together in their younger years and were best friends. From a young boy Nathan was fascinated by nature and could often be found searching for bugs with his custom ‘bug box’ whenever he had the chance. ANYTHING Nathan wanted to do, he would pour himself into no matter the level of difficulty, until he mastered it. Nathan had unique and amazing gifts that came natural to him. He was a self-taught artist and he left behind some incredible drawings. Nathan proudly passed on his unicycling skills by teaching them to his younger brother Camden, as well as to his cousins Christian and Cameron Lopez. Nate also taught himself to dance hip hop style and had a passion to write and record original rap music. He also loved to fish, unless he wasn’t catching anything that is. “Two casts; Two snags; Touché!” – Nathan Allen Nathan had a “heart gift” for anyone with a physical or mental challenge. Even as a young child he was drawn to children and adults with disabilities and he was blind to whatever the disability was. Nathan had a very special relationship with his late Uncle Jack, who it turns out, Nathan had become a spitting image of as he got older. They were truly happy when they were together, and Nathan grieved deeply for his favorite uncle and best friend 'Uncle Jack' when he passed. He is not missing him any longer! While we will grieve Nates passing and will miss him every day while we are still on this earth, we rejoice in the knowledge that Nathan is at peace, out of pain, loving and receiving love, with a renewed mind, a brand-new body, and a clear conscience. We will see you soon son!

Nathan left behind a loving son, Kyler Allen, his mother and father, Gwendolyn and Scott Allen, his sister Elizabeth Allen, and his brother Camden Allen. Nathan also left behind a huge extended family, which included aunts, uncles, grandparents and cousins.

“ Nate always was friendly with everyone he met. I was impressed with his ability to have a meaningful conversation with everyone he came in contact with, even individuals whom he knew but rarely saw. As a close friend of 20+ years to his aunt I was surprised how open and honest he was about his past, as well as his future goals. He was one of a kind.

“ I met Nathaniel when he came into my office to help him create a resume. My first thought was, Gwen and Scott created a nice looking man (plus 2 more=blessed)! He was excited and energetic to make a new start. I'm sure his son will grow up to be a nice looking man and have excitement for life like his dad. Michelle and your family will make sure Kyler knows he has an angel looking over him.

“ Nate was such a sweet gentleman. He always treated "elders" with such high respect. When talking with Nate, he always have me his full attention and listened intently. Even though our conversations were few and short I always walked away feeling valued. I only wish Nate would have known how valued, loved and accepted he really was. I always loved and felt his passion and enthusiasm for Jesus and recovery.
