“ *So sorry to hear of Darlene's passing.
May God give you all comfort during this sad time.
I got to know Darlene & Denver through their cousin Sheila when we were in school. I hadn't got to see her in several years.
She was a very kind and soft spoken person with a very pretty smile and always enjoyed life.
God Bless You All*

“ Heaven is her reward. We are not sad for her, but for all of us still here that will miss her. Mark, always know you have a family in Harrison that welcomes you day or night.

*Much Love,
John and Jennifer Robinson*

“ I hadn't seen Darlene since she was very young. I have kept up with her and her sisters threw their mother Nelda. We were all saddened to hear of Darlene's illness and passing. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her family and friends. It's hard to even come up with the right words at a time like this. But, just know that we will continue to pray for you all. God Bless each one of you.

“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss. Darlene's brother, Denver, was in my class in High School. He was such a nice person. May God bless and comfort you at this difficult time in your life.

“ Mark...I'm sorry...there just aren't words. She was so loved by everyone that knew her. We had the good fortune of knowing her for many years and her bubbly disposition was the same when she faced surgery as it was as a young carefree teen...She loved life! Heaven has been blessed, but we will miss her terribly.

“ I had the privilege to share a desk -- and a working group -- with Nelda during my years at J.B. Hunt. We shared many stories and conversations, and Nelda was always a supportive friend who would be there when no one else would. I did not know about her illness and was devastated to hear of her loss. I looked back through my emails and the last time I asked her how things were going (over a year ago) she answered, "Easy peezey lemon squeezey." I don't know how her health was at that time, but somehow I think she would have given me the same answer if I'd asked last week.

Nelda was bright and talented and always positive, a kind and lovely person to be around. The world is a darker place for the lack of her. She will be missed.
