“ Marcey, I'm not sure what else to say except that we are so sorry for your loss and your unimaginable grief. I wish there was something we could do to help you, but the only thing I know we can do is pray - we have been doing that earnestly and will continue to do so on behalf of you and your family. God bless you and comfort you.

“ Ball Family; I never had the privilege of knowing your son, brother, grandson, and great grandson. I live in the Southwind Terrace s/d and have seen an outpouring of concern from the many neighbors who knew Tyler and your family. I have a son and a stepson, and cannot imagine the pain of losing one so dear. I only know that God, the Father, has a special place in His heart for each of you, and will comfort you through this trial. He had a Son also, and He knows your pain. God be with you.

“ Dear Ball Family, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. As Tyler's sixth grade teacher I remember what a smart, respectful young man he was. I always knew I could count on him to be doing the right thing. I feel blessed to have been his teacher. My prayers will continue to be with your family. Sherry Dyer
