“ I was PJ's 1st husband, Bennie Oliver. I was so proud after our divorce that she kept my last name! We were not only husband and wife, but good friends. After the divorce, she still lived with me for approx 6 months, then moved back to Harrison, Ar. I also worked for her Dad, Evert Jordan, in Russellville, Ar., at Jordan Volkswagon the we moved to Harrison, Ar where her Dad had built a new Volkswagon as their accountant. PJ and I moved back to Russellville, Ar., ended up deciding (together) that maybe marriage wasn't for either of us, so we departed, remained friends forever. When she moved back to Harrison, Ar, we visited on another almost every week end traveling back and forth. Then she joined the Airforce, as well as her brother Greg, and I lost contact with her a few years. When she got out of the airforce, I found out she moved to Springdale, and was actually able to go to Springdale and visit her one day at her job in the mid-late 80's after stopping in Carthidge, Mo to visit with her and her new husband. Marlys was the best Mother-in-Law!!!! I stayed in complete contact with Marlys and her husband for several years!! Love you Pam and will always miss you!

I cry every time I read this. Its so very painful for me. A loss that can't bear speaking in many ways. I loved you so deeply Bennie and you disappeared that day. It hurts me still. Melanie

“ I am going to miss you, you crazy woman. We didn't talk much about God on all of our outings to Quilt shows and Fabric shops and quilt groups, but I suspect you believed. I know where you are and I am going to find you when I get there.

Marlys and Greg, PJ was a wonderful friend to me. I will never forget her.

“ My heart hurts ... time goes by so fast and each time you think of someone you say "I need to call her" and you don't, and then you can't.

I have great memories working with PJ. I will treasure the friendship and memories.

“ P J and I worked together for many years at Brunner & Lay. We were part of the original group hired in the accounting department. I have alot of good memories from that time. When I would go back for visits P J was always showing me something she was making. She seemed to really enjoy doing her crafts. I am sure she will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers are with the family at this difficult time.

“ "My REAL name is Pamela Jean Jordan". As your cousins, Deb, Diane, Nancy and I grew up hearing those words from you at every family gathering. We called you "Pammy", but you always made a point of reminding us what your name REALLY was. I have so many memories of the 5 of us little girls playing together....in Aunt Louise and Uncle Dutch's basement with the play-kitchen set. Picking grapes behind your house in North East, and eating them until we got sick. Playing in the snow and making snow-angels in our yard at Christmas time. We were cousins, and we were all so close. Suddenly, life got in the way. You moved away. Deb and Diane moved away. Friends took up the empty spaces in our lives. Some of us married, some went to college, some joined the Airforce. As decades went by, we often thought of one another, and wondered where life had led each of us. But the happy childhood memories have always been there....in our minds and hearts....and we will carry them with us, ALWAYS! Sending our love to you on the wings of angels.....Sandy and Nancy

I first met PJ at Hancocks years ago, and ultimately took a quilting class she taught. I bumped into her at Hancocks a while back and will miss her pleasant, friendly ways.

PJ, you immediately left a marvelous impression on me, I am thankful to have met you.

You shall be missed.
