“ Pam was my sweet friend and she always had the perfect scripture for me. She made me laugh so hard at times and she was the cutest cowgirl ever. She loved her cowboy boots and she was an Angel from above. I'll miss her dearly. My entire family loved her like our own.

May all who knew her remember her as firecracker witness for the Lord and her unselfish desire for others to know Him as well.

Pam was very sweet to me when I was a newspaper carrier at the Avalanche-Journal. She was concerned about my safety so she gave me some mace to carry. She also got into trying to breed cats with extra toes. She gave us a delightful male kitty that was an absolute blessing to us. We had many long happy discussions about our lives and about God. Pam was a wonderful friend and I will always remember her with joy. I am sending my prayers to her family.
