“ It was with such sadness that we learned of the passing of our good neighbor, Pat. She and my husband had laughing conversations about bird houses and there was always a friendly wave between her and I. Many hugs to Robin and Tyler. May you hold the memories close.

“ Pat was always a joy to be around. Fun with a good sense of humor and great laugh. We have many great memories of fun times. She had priceless looks on her face when you were telling a whopper or teasing her. Her banter back and forth with Rob was always entertaining. She loved Tyler more than life itself. She was so proud of him and his accomplishments. She also never met a garden tomato she didn't instantly fall madly in love with! We will certainly miss her and will continue prayers for Tyler and Rob. Dana and Lana Colley
