

Patricia H. Miesner

October 23, 1930 - June 17, 2020

Patricia H. Miesner, born Patricia Jayne Holbrook on October 23, 1930, died peacefully in her sleep on June 17, 2020. Beloved matriarch who put the independent in woman many years before the rest of society was ready. She earned her pilot's license in the 1960's and was a successful assessor and realtor before turning to counseling at Fayetteville High School and then Ramay Junior High. She loved to bird watch, play bridge, and travel. She was ahead of her time in so many ways trying to support and understand her students. After Pat's retirement she became a Bridge Life Master and it was nothing to see her at a bridge table in Fayetteville, Springdale, Rogers, Bentonville, or Bella Vista.

She was preceded in death by her daughter Jo Ann Hudgens.

She leaves behind her daughter, Lindi Johnson; son-in-law, Mark Johnson; granddaughter, Patricia Goin; grandson-in-law, James Goin, granddaughter, Graci Johnson; and great granddaughter, Joanna Johnson.

Miss Pat left directions for her family to follow wherever she went—the most pressing being that she not have a memorial service. If you would like to do something in her memory, in lieu of flowers please donate to ASPCA or the NWA Women's Shelter.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Pat was a very unique and interesting lady and I liked her immediately upon meeting her. I loved listening to her memories of her life. I only wish I had known her longer.

“ So very sorry to hear of your mother's passing Lindi, Mark, and all of your family. I remember your mother so very well as a counselor at FHS many years ago. I thought she was a very nice lady and very kind to me when I had questions about what to do for a career. Our condolences go out to all of you at this very difficult time. God Bless all of you at this difficult time.
