

Patrick Walter Robertson

December 30, 1947 - March 6, 2019

Patrick Walter Robertson, 71 of Springdale passed away Wednesday, March 6, 2019 at Westwood Health and Rehabilitation. He was born December 30, 1947 in Denver, Colorado to Harry (Lynn) and Ethel Kersen Robertson.

Pat worked for Northwest Medical Center. Pat spent many, many hours as a volunteer for the hospital. He wrote the monthly news letter & worked at Guest Housing. He loved his time as a volunteer & enjoyed working with his fellow volunteers & attending their special events!

Prior to relocating to Springdale, Pat was in the Marine Corp for 7 years. He was assigned to Specialized Training Classes in which he excelled. This made him an asset to the Marines & in civilian life! His last duty station was in Casper, WY where he was a Recruiter. He recruited many fine young men & women into the Corp. After leaving the Marines, he worked a number of years for Wyoming Medical Center in Casper, WY. He loved motorcycles, hunting, fishing, wood working, and telling jokes.

He is preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Bernard Robertson.

Survivors include his longtime love and companion, Lois Short of Springdale; two sons, Patrick Robertson and wife Dani of Michigan and Skeeter Robertson and wife Michelle of Wyoming; four daughters, Tammy Ping of Iowa, Theresa Cromer and husband David of Iowa, Michele Ward and husband Tim of Michigan and Shea Durossette and husband Eddie of Kansas; one sister, Lynnette (Lynn) Barlow and husband Bill of Wyoming and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Memorial service will be Friday, March 15, 2019 at 1pm at Sisco Funeral Chapel of Springdale.

“ Sending hugs and love to all of Pat's family and friends. I met Pat many years ago in San Diego as I was working with his sister and one of my BFF... Lynnette Barlow and in later years was very close to his brother Bernie. Thinking of you all today and I am sure Pat, Bernie and mom are all together again in heaven. xoxoxoxoxo
