“ *I will always remember the Golf tournament in Tunica. Paul and I spent 3 days on the golf course once a year. We grew to be very close friends. He always looked out for me when we got back to the hotel. He would say dauber stay in the room and have a few drinks other wise you may not make to play golf at 7 am. He was always right but i still went to the casino. I just sold him my drum set and he was adding pieces to it. I know he liked playing. He will be dearly missed. My condolences to the family. “ Upon going to work for Dan Clark at Multi-Craft, Paul was the first foreman that he asked me to work with. I soon learned why. In spite of thinking that I knew the construction industry, I learned from Paul every day. He had the ability to think, reason, manage, but most of all to lead. He will be missed by many. RIP my friend.

“ RIP Paul. You were there when I first started bidding\project managing for Dan at mcc. We tackled some big projects before we got thru the learning curve, so we leaned on each other, butted heads cuz we're both hard headed, cussed and made up. Clinked our beers together afterwards and it was no big thing. Then did it again..... I remember the last part, the laughing and cutting up after we plowed thru. The rest was work and fades. Rest well, as always, we got this.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Paul was the first Arkansas Foreman I worked for being from the Springfield shop in 2004. I learned from him and he was good to me which was a big deal to me because I was fairly new the company and there was so much going on. He will be missed for our Multi-Craft family as well as his. Rest In Peace my friend.
