“ I remember going to church at Revival Tabernacle. The first time that I met Paul I was about 9 or 10 years old. I remember in the 1880's Paul would have Larry and Jana Hinson hold services. Paul was a great man

Some of my best memories visiting with brother Paul Eden at the church and also his home! Always had encouraging words for me in my younger years! He will be surely missed! But is in a wonderful place in heaven with his parents and siblings! " Well done my faithful servant"
