Peggy Ellen Glenn, 86 of Springdale passed away October 8, 2020 at Willard Walker Hospice in Fayetteville. She was born February 20, 1934 in Steprock, Arkansas to Arch Talley and Myrtle Bowers Talley.

Peggy was the model of a strong independent thinking woman. She maintained a balance with her adventurous, fun-loving style, and her way of making people feel welcomed. She was generous with her time, talents, and

She had the opportunity to take several trips with her friends that were a source of delight for her.

Peggy was laid to rest at Bluff Cemetery. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, we will not be having a memorial service. However, we encourage you to share your stories and memories of Peggy on the Sisco Funeral Chapel website tribute page. “ Peggy was such a wonderful friend over years of traveling to her cleaners in Fayetteville each week and then in Springdale. I lived a short walk from the cleaners in Springdale and remember one very heavy snowfall that I walked over to see if she'd made it safely.

PRAISE GOD! She is there! We'd become close friends over a few years and one day I was so surprised to received a letter in the mail from Peggy in California! I remember we shared a close friend between, us; Elaine Meinecke from Fayetteville. They had an exercise class, together. Be BLESSED, BEAUTIFUL BRILLIANT PEGGY, Now forever free in your mansion in heaven with family and friends. One day we shall meet forever. I love you, Peggy! Jan DeWese

“ Aunt Peggy was my mom's little sister. Our families spent a lot of summers together at the lake camping and skiing. Aunt Peggy liked to get up early to ski when the water was "smooth as glass" she said. One summer our families drove all the way to Acapulco. Aunt Peggy and mom tiptoes into the ocean saying " now you kids don't splash us", about that time a giant wave came in and took them both down, ruining their French twist hairdos.(lol) I lived with Aunt Peggy and Uncle Milton one summer. It was great! They let Johnny Vaughan, Tish Conway and I take the "442" out for a drive to the car wash, we came back a little wet all over, lots of fun. I loved Aunt Peggy and all the memories.
