“ To the Fredrich family: It was with sadness that I saw the obituary of Phil on Sunday. He and his family grew up down the street from my family, Jay was in my class. I'll never forget the day their dad drowned -- such sadness for their family and for our church community. I would see Phil through the years as he was often in Little Rock for diocesan events and it was always a joy to visit with him. He was special.

“ Most gracious Heavenly Father, please provide comfort and strength to those left among us who mourn the earthly loss of those now with you. Amen.

“ Phil and I served together for several years in the Bella Vista Ministerial Alliance. Phil was so gracious and compassionate. He helped our group research, promote and raise the necessary funds to construct and erect two new signs along Hwy 71 which read: "The Churches of Bella Vista Welcome You".

I was impressed with Phil's deep faith and devotion to family. We had several lunch meetings and discussed our similar backgrounds. While at the U of A, Phil roomed with a student from my hometown (Piggott). Phil was an encourager, confidant, and most of all--a friend.

I knew Phil had been going through treatments for quite some time, but did not know his condition had deteriorated so much.

To his wife and family, please know you remain in my thoughts and prayers. Phil was a genuine man of faith and demonstrated that faith by helping others in need.

If I can be of any assistance to the family, please don't hesitate to call me.

“ Hope and family-

We are so glad we got to know Phil over the last year. He was a joy to talk with as he shared his life stories with us. We will always smile and remember Phil every time we see a grandfather clock..

Keeping you close in our thoughts and prayers,

*Much love,

“ Dear Fredrich Family,

I didn't see Phil often but I was always struck by how cheerful he seemed. He always seemed to have a ready smile in spite of all his physical trials. I know he will be missed.

My love and prayers.
